About us:

Vonesthai is a Thai-Swiss company, established in 1995 as a branch of Vonesco Control in Zürich, Switzerland. Mainly focused to provide local support and service to various industries, such as Food and Beverage, as well as control systems for the plating industry. Beside the planning and manufacturing of high quality controls, we are the local service centre and representative of various first-class-quality products from Germany and Switzerland.
